Constitution: The proposed rules do not mandate any action and thus have no mandatory effect on any political subdivision and create no new responsibilities for such subdivisions. Municipalities may elect to comment on proposed extensions of liquor licenses within their borders but are not required to do so. These rules make it possible for local issues to be heard body prior to an extension of a license.. This is a voluntary action. There are no new or additional expenditures created or required by these rules for any political subdivisions.
